v.

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM

00-C-421-C

Dennis Jones'El has filed a document titled, "Joint Legal Matters and Affidavit in Support of Request to Federal Judge to Review Provision of Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA") Governing Settlement Agreement With Regard to Parties Agreeing to Have a Court Approved Monitor." In this document, plaintiff contends that he is being denied access to a court approved monitor, which means that he and other members of the class are without the intermediary intended by the settlement agreement in this case to work between the Department of Corrections and counsel for plaintiffs to review inmate complaints about conditions covered by the agreement. Plaintiff's submission was filed on October 1, 2004, one day after this court signed a stipulated agreement between counsel for plaintiffs and the defendants naming Walter Dickey as the new monitor. I presume that if they have not done so already, counsel for plaintiffs will be advising plaintiffs promptly of the address at which Mr. Dickey may be reached. Because the appointment of Walter Dickey to serve as monitor in this action moots the matters raised in plaintiff Jones'El's submission, no further action will be taken with respect to it.

Entered this 6th day of October, 2004.
