

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHRISTOPHER JOHN BOLT,

Defendant.

ORDER

00-CR-05-S

Having read the government's thorough, persuasive (and unopposed) motion to reconsider my order requiring disclosure of probation's "chrono notes" in this case, see dkt. 119, I am reversing my previous decision. I now find that defendant Christopher J. Bolt is not entitled to disclosure of these documents during these revocation proceedings. Indeed, I see no need at this time to take the government up on its offer of an in camera review of the file. See id. at 5. I trust that the government will disclose—or already has disclosed—all relevant, non-privileged documents to opposing counsel.

The court will be contacting the parties to schedule a continuation of the probable cause and detention hearing.

Entered this 14th day of September, 2007.
