

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JASON MATTHEW SMITH,

Defendant.

ORDER

02-CR-0013-C-01

Defendant Jason Smith filed a motion for the return of United States currency on March 27, 2006. In response to that motion, the government wrote to defendant, advising him that the money in question had been forfeited to the Drug Enforcement Administration in three separate proceedings. Apparently, in connection with each forfeiture, the DEA provided notice of the forfeiture action to defendant. In two of the three seizures, defendant filed no claim for the property. In the third seizure, defendant filed a claim for the return of $1,930.00, but the claim was ruled deficient by the DEA and defendant did not amend the claim to cure the deficiencies.

If defendant believes that the information provided him by the government is incomplete or inaccurate, he may move to amend his motion no later than June 1, 2006.

If he does not file such an amendment, the motion will be deemed to have been withdrawn.

Entered this 8th day of May, 2006.
