

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

EUGENE CHERRY,

Plaintiff,

v.

MATTHEW FRANK, GERALD BERGE,
PETER HUIBREGTSE, GARY BOUGHTON,
BRAD HOMPE, JOAN GERL,
SGT. C. HANEY, THOMAS BELZ and
HENRY BRAY,

Defendants.

ORDER

03-C-129-C

Plaintiff's eighth motion for appointment of counsel is DENIED. As I have stated in past orders, I believe that plaintiff is capable of presenting his case and that appointment of counsel will not make a difference in the outcome of this case. It is time for plaintiff to turn his attention to preparing his case for trial. In a separate order entered today, I have described in plain language how the trial will be conducted and what the parties' responsibilities will be. I have no doubt that plaintiff is capable of understanding the substance of the order and of preparing his case accordingly. I do not intend to consider any further motions for appointment of counsel that plaintiff may file. If plaintiff files another such motion, it will be placed in the file without a response.

Entered this 12th day of December, 2003.

BARBARA B. CRABB
District Judge
