

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

AARON D. HUNTER,

Defendant.

ORDER

04-CR-0079-C-01

This criminal case was set for a sentencing hearing to take place on October 7, 2004. Several days before the scheduled hearing, defendant wrote the court to complain that he had not had an opportunity to talk with his court-appointed counsel about the presentence investigation report, although the September 29, 2004 deadline for filing objections to the report was looming. In fact, by the time I received defendant's letter, the deadline had passed with no objections filed on defendant's behalf. To give defendant's counsel additional time to meet with his client and prepare objections, I continued the sentencing hearing to October 15, 2004.

Despite this continuance, defendant's counsel has still not filed objections to the presentence report. It may be that counsel has visited defendant, although there is no evidence that he has.

Because defendant's counsel has not given me any reason to think that he is fulfilling his obligations to his client, I will schedule a hearing at which he may show cause why he should not be relieved of his representation of defendant.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that John Dade is to appear before the court at a hearing to be held on Wednesday, October 13, 2004, at 2:00 p.m. and show cause if any there be why he should not be relieved of his representation of defendant.

Entered this 8th day of October, 2004.
