06-C-491-S

Defendants.

---

Plaintiff moves to reopen the above entitled matter which was dismissed without prejudice on November 21, 2006 because he was unable to prosecute it. On November 13, 2006 defendants had moved for summary judgment. Before the above entitled matter can be reopened plaintiff must submit his brief in opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment. Upon receipt of his opposition brief the case will be reopened. Plaintiff's motion for a temporary restraining order will be denied at this time.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff's motion to reopen the above entitled matter is DENIED until he submits a brief in opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment.

Goodvine v. Grams, et al., 06-C-491-S

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for a temporary restraining order is DENIED at this time.

Entered this 7th day of March, 2007.
