

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

Plaintiff,

JASON VISOR,

Defendant.

ORDER OF DETENTION

07-CR81-S

On August 22, 2007, this court held a hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(f) on the government's motion to detain defendant Jason Visor in this felon-with-a-gun case. After hearing proffers and arguments from both sides I detained defendant, finding that the government had proved by a preponderance of the evidence that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community, and that the proposed conditions of release were insufficient to ameliorate this risk. Defendant has a history of not appearing in state court. He has two prior drug felony convictions, the second for conduct that occurred while on supervised release for the first. The facts underlying the instant gun charge reveal that defendant, only months after concluding his most recent term of state supervision, was armed with a small handgun while in possession of about 6 ounces of marijuana packaged for resale. Having repeatedly proved himself unworthy of the state court's trust, and with strong evidence that he currently is employed as an armed drug dealer, defendant presents a clear flight risk and danger to the community who cannot be controlled by conditions of release.

It is ORDERED that defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshals Service for confinement at a proximate jail separate from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his attorney. On order of the court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the jail shall deliver the defendant to the Marshals Service for the purpose of an appearance in this case.

Dated: August 22, 2007
