If defendant has been convicted of a felony, defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon while on supervised release.

Defendant shall cooperate with the collection of DNA by the U.S. Justice Department and/or the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office as required by Public Law 108-405.

- (4) Refrain from the use of alcohol and abstain from illegal drugs and association with drug users and sellers and participate in substance abuse treatment as directed by probation officer. Defendant shall submit to drug testing beginning within 15 days of release and 60 drug tests annually thereafter. The probation office may utilize the Administrative Office of U.S. Court's phased collection process;
- (5) Defendant shall submit to a psychological evaluation as directed by the supervising U.S. probation officer and follow all recommendations for treatment; and
- (6) Comply with any court-ordered child support obligations.

Total	$100.00	$0.00	$0.00

It is adjudged that the defendant is to pay a $100 criminal assessment penalty to the Clerk of Court for the Western District of Wisconsin.

Defendant has neither the means nor earning capacity to pay a fine under § 5E1.2(c) without impairing his ability to support himself and his child upon release.

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

- (1) assessment;
- (2) restitution;
- (3) fine principal;
- (4) cost of prosecution;
- (5) interest;
- (6) penalties.

The total fine and other monetary penalties shall be due in full immediately unless otherwise stated elsewhere.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if the judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of court, unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States Attorney.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

In the event of a civil settlement between victim and defendant, defendant must provide evidence of such payments or settlement to the Court, U.S. Probation office, and U.S. Attorney's office so that defendant's account can be credited.
