In a June 18, 2010 order, I dismissed plaintiff Carl Gilbert's complaint because it violated Fed. R. Civ. P. 8 (and likely Rule 20 as well), and gave him another chance to file a complaint that complies with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Even after plaintiff was granted a motion for extension of time to August 23, 2010 to file his amended complaint, he failed to do so. Judgment was entered August 31, 2010. Now plaintiff has submitted a letter indicating his change of address, as well as mentioning that prison staff denied him legal supplies and legal assistance. It is unclear why plaintiff submitted this letter without also explaining whether he was planning on sending in his amended complaint. If he wishes to continue with this case by submitting an amended complaint, he should include a formal motion for relief from judgment, explaining in detail how he was prevented from submitting the amended complaint on time.

Entered this 23d day of September, 2010.
