Plaintiff Charles Pride has filed a second motion to reopen the case that was dismissed on September 23, 2010 for failure to comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8 and 20. In denying his first motion to reopen, I concluded that plaintiff had not filed a proposed amended complaint that complied with Rules 8 and 20 and therefore he had provided no basis for reopening the case. In his second motion, plaintiff contends that his case should be reopened because defendants deprived him of the right to land, water, fire suppression and utilities, among other things. However, as I explained to plaintiff in the previous order, the court will not reopen his case unless he files a proposed amended complaint demonstrating his willingness to comply with the federal rules of procedure. Plaintiff has not attached a proposed amended complaint to his present motion to reopen. Thus, there is no reason for the court to reopen plaintiff's case.

ORDER

Plaintiff Charles Pride's motion to reopen the case, dkt. #10, is DENIED.

Entered this 2d day of December, 2010.
