

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

-----
WANDA McCANN-SMITH,

Plaintiff,

v.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL,

Defendant.

ORDER

10-cv-546-slc<sup>1</sup>

This is a civil action for monetary relief in which plaintiff Wanda McCann-Smith contends that defendant St. Mary's Hospital wrongfully terminated her employment and treated her differently from other employees because of her race.

In a November 24, 2010 order, I granted plaintiff's motion to vacate her notice of voluntary dismissal and instead stayed the case pending resolution of proceedings with the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission. Now plaintiff has filed a copy of the "right-to-sue" letter that she received from the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission. I take this to mean that plaintiff wishes to continue with her case in this court. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the stay in the case is LIFTED. I will send a copy of plaintiff's complaint, the October 7, 2010 screening order and this order to the United States Marshal for service on defendant.

Entered this 11th day of January, 2011.
