

Voir Dire: United States v. Lucero-Alvarez, 10-cr-181-bbc

Statement of the case: This is a criminal case, in which the defendant, Cuauhtemoc Lucero-Alvarez is charged with being a alien who unlawfully re-entered the United States without permission after previously having been deported. The defendant has entered a plea of not guilty to the charge against him.

Have any of you heard of this case before today? Would this affect your ability to serve impartially as a juror in this case?

1. Scheduling: this case will begin today and will conclude either this evening or tomorrow. Are any of you actually unable to sit as jurors because of this schedule?

2. Is there anything about the nature of the charges in this case that might affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

3. The court reads Pattern Jury Instructions of the Seventh Circuit:

The defendant is presumed to be innocent of the charge. This presumption remains with the defendant throughout every stage of the trial and during your deliberations on the verdict, and is not overcome unless from all the evidence in the case you are convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty.

The government has the burden of proving the guilt of the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt, and this burden remains on the government throughout the case. The defendant is not required to prove his innocence or to produce any evidence.

The defendant has an absolute right not to testify. The fact that the defendant does not testify cannot be considered by you in any way in arriving at your verdict.

Would any of you be unable or unwilling to follow these instructions?

4. Ask counsel to introduce themselves, the defendant and the case agent. Ask whether jurors know them.

5. Invite each juror, in turn, to rise, and provide the following information:

Name, age, and city or town of residence.

Marital/partner status and number of children, if any.

Current occupation (former if retired).

Current (or former) occupation of your spouse/partner and any adult children.

Any military service, including branch, rank and approximate date of discharge.

Level of education, and major areas of study, if any.

Memberships in any groups or organizations.

Hobbies and leisure-time activities.

Favorite types of reading material.

Favorite types of television shows.

Whether you regularly listen to talk radio, and if so, to which programs.

Whether you regularly use the internet to visit sites other than e-mail or personal business, and if so, what types of sites you visit most often.

Whether you have bumper stickers on your vehicles and what they say.

6. Do any of you in the jury box know each other from before today?

7. The defendant is Latino [or Hispanic]. Would any of you find it difficult to serve as an impartial juror in a case in which a Hispanic man is charged with unlawfully re-entering the United States after being deported?

8. The defendant will be an interpreter to assist them throughout this trial. Is there anything about the fact that the defendant is using an interpreter that would affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

9. Other than what you already have told us, do any of you, your family or close friends belong to any groups that concern themselves with the issue of illegal immigration, legal immigration, immigration amnesty or any similar topic? Would this affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

10. Other than what you already have told us, do any of you regularly watch, read or listen to any programs, websites or publications that regularly address the issue of illegal immigration, legal immigration, immigration amnesty or any similar topic? Would this affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

11. Do any of you have strong feelings or opinions about illegal immigration, legal immigration, immigration amnesty or any similar topic that would affect your ability to be fair to both sides in this case? [sidebar]

12. Have any of you, your relatives, or close friends ever been accused of, or convicted of any criminal offense, or any civil offense involving cocaine or marijuana? [Sidebar if necessary]. Would this affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

13. Do any of you, by virtue of past dealings with the United States government, or for any reason, have any bias for or against the government in a criminal case?

14. Have any of you, your relatives, or close friends ever worked for the local, county, state, or federal government? Would this affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

15. Have any of you, your relatives, or close friends ever worked for, or had other professional contact with any law enforcement, investigative or security company or agency, or any prison? Would this affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

16. Have any of you ever belonged to any organization or group that excluded people because of their race, gender, or religion?

17. Would any of you judge the credibility of a witness who was a law enforcement officer or government employee differently from other witnesses solely because of his or her official position?

18. Would any of you judge the credibility of a witness who had been convicted of a crime in the past differently from other witnesses solely because of this prior conviction?

19. Would any of you judge the testimony of a witness who was Latino/Latina differently from other witnesses solely because of the witness's ethnic background?

20. If the defendant were to choose to testify, would any of you judge his credibility differently from other witnesses solely because it was the defendant who was testifying?

21. Have any of you, your relatives, or close friends ever been the victim of any crime? Would this affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

22. Have any of you, your relatives, or close friends ever been a witness in a trial? Is there anything about this experience that might affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

23. Have any of you, your relatives, or close friends ever had any negative experience with any lawyer, any court, or any legal proceeding that would affect your ability to be impartial in this case?

24. How many of you have served previously as a juror in another case? Please tell us in which court you served, approximately when, the type of cases you heard, whether you were foreperson, and the verdicts.

25. If at the conclusion of the trial you were to be convinced of the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, is there any one of you who would not, or could not, return a verdict of guilty?

26. If at the conclusion of the trial you were not to be convinced of the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, is there any one of you who would not, or could not, return a verdict of not guilty?

27. The court will instruct you on the law to be applied in this case. You are required to accept and follow the court's instructions in that regard, even though you may disagree with the law. Is there any one of you who cannot accept this requirement?

28. Do you know of any reason whatever, either suggested by these questions or otherwise, why you could not sit as a trial juror with absolute impartiality to all the parties in this case?
