

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

WILLIAM OKEY McEACHINS,

Defendant.

ORDER

10-cr-60-bbc

Defendant William Okey McEachins has filed a motion for reduction of his sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) and (B). He alleges that he has a serious medical condition that requires specialized medical attention and he believes that if the court would change his sentence to run concurrently with his state sentence, it would allow him to be released from prison sooner so that he could receive the specialized medical treatment he believes he needs.

Section 3582 does not authorize a court to correct a sentence for any reason other than a retroactive change in the sentencing guidelines. Accordingly, defendant's motion must be denied. If defendant believes that prison officials are violating his civil rights by denying him adequate medical treatment, he is free to file a civil suit.

ORDER

Defendant's motion for reduction of sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3582 is DENIED for lack of jurisdiction.
