

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

SYLVESTER JACKSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

RANDALL R. HEPP and RICK RAEMISCH,

Defendants.

ORDER

11-cv-136-slc¹

Plaintiff Sylvester Jackson has filed a motion for a preliminary injunction in which he alleges that he is not receiving appropriate medical care for a back condition. I cannot grant the motion because he is seeking relief that is beyond the scope of this lawsuit. Plaintiff is proceeding on a claim that defendants Randall Hepp and Rick Raemisch violated his right to free speech by prohibiting him from seeking legal assistance from prisoners who are not housed in the same unit as he is. His claim has nothing to do with medical care.

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 20, plaintiffs may not join unrelated claims in one lawsuit. If plaintiff believes that prison officials are violating his right to receive adequate medical care under the Eighth Amendment, he must file a new case against those individuals he believes are responsible.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Sylvester Jackson's motion for a preliminary injunction, dkt. #18, is DENIED.
