DAVID LAFRAUCHI,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL DITTMAN, Warden RGC
and GARY HAMBLIN, Secretary DOC,

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM

11-cv-143-slc

Plaintiff David LaFrauchi, a prisoner at the Redgranite Correctional Institution in Regranite, Wisconsin, has submitted a motion for preliminary injunctive relief along with a request for leave to proceed in forma pauperis accompanied by a trust fund account statement. In his motion, plaintiff seeks an order so that he may be allowed to practice the beliefs and dietary needs of the Hebrew Israelite Messianic Natsarim religion.

Before this court can entertain a motion for preliminary injunctive relief from plaintiff, he will have to file a formal complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, setting out the facts underlying his claim that he is entitled to relief in this court and identifying in the caption of the complaint all of the persons he intends to sue. This is so both sides to the dispute are provided an opportunity to tell the court their version of the facts and their view of the law. Therefore, plaintiff must fill out a formal complaint and promptly return it to the court. To assist plaintiff, I am sending him this court's form for filing a civil lawsuit.

Entered this 2nd day of March, 2011.
