ORDER

11-cv-195-slc

Plaintiff, a prisoner at the Wisconsin Secure Program Facility, in Boscobel, Wisconsin is proceeding in forma pauperis in this lawsuit. Now before the court is plaintiff's motion for an order directing prison officials to pay the remaining balance of the filing fee from his release account. See dkt. 11. The request will be denied.

Under the Prison Litigation Reform Act, an inmate who files a lawsuit in federal court under the in forma pauperis statute must pay the $350 filing fee, first by making an initial partial payment and then by sending the remainder of the fee to the court in installments of 20% of the preceding month's income in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). On March 21, 2011, this court entered an order assessing plaintiff a $11.55 initial partial payment of the filing fee in this case, which plaintiff paid on April 4, 2011.

It is commendable that plaintiff is taking responsibility for paying his remaining balance promptly, but he cannot use his release account funds in the manner he requests. The language in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1) suggests that prison officials are required to use a prisoner's release account to satisfy an initial partial payment if no other funds are available. Carter v. Bennett, 399 F. Supp. 2d 936, 936-37 (W.D. Wis. 2005). However, with the exception of initial partial payments, federal courts lack the authority to tell state officials whether and to what extent a prisoner should be able to withdraw money from his release account. Because plaintiff cannot use his release account funds to pay the remaining balance of the $350 filing fee, I will deny his motion.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Gregory Ortiz's motion for an order directing prison officials to pay the remainder of his filing fee from his release account, dkt. #11, is DENIED.

Entered this 31st day of May, 2011.
