

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

JERRY O'DELL,

Plaintiff,

v.

STEVE WATTERS DEB MCCULLOCH,
STEPHANIE ARMITAGE and JANET FAIT,

Defendants.

ORDER

11-cv-399-slc

Plaintiff Jerry O'Dell, a patient at the Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Center, has filed a proposed complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging violations of his constitutional rights. In addition, he has submitted a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and an affidavit in support of his motion.

This court uses one method for determining the indigent status of all institutionalized persons, even those like plaintiff who are not subject to the 1996 Prison Litigation Reform Act. See Longbehn v. United States, 169 F.3d 1082 (7th Cir. 1999). From a six-month resident account statement covering the full six-month period immediately preceding the filing of the plaintiff's complaint, the court calculates two amounts, 20% of the plaintiff's average monthly income and 20% of the plaintiff's average monthly balance. Whichever amount is greater is the amount the plaintiff will have to prepay toward the $350 filing fee. He will qualify for indigent status with respect to the remainder of the fee. (The in forma pauperis statute does not permit a court to waive entirely a plaintiff's obligation to pay filing fees. All it does is allow a court to grant qualifying individuals leave to proceed without prepaying some or all of the filing fee.)

In his affidavit, plaintiff states that he is not employed by the institution and does not have any cash, checking, savings or other accounts. Plaintiff will have to provide a copy of his six-month resident account statement if he intends to pursue his request for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Because plaintiff's complaint was submitted on May 25, 2011, his resident account statement should cover the period beginning approximately November 25, 2010 and ending approximately May 25, 2011. If plaintiff fails to submit the required statement within the deadline set below, then I will assume he does not wish to proceed with this action and this case will be closed.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff may have until June 27, 2011, in which to submit a certified copy of his resident account statement beginning approximately November 25, 2010 and ending approximately May 25, 2011. If, by June 27, 2011, plaintiff fails to submit the required statement or show cause of his failure to do so, I will assume that he wishes to withdraw this action voluntarily and, in that case, the clerk of court is directed to close this file without prejudice to plaintiff's filing his case at a later date.

Entered this 6th day of June, 2011.
