FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

ALLAN DE JESUS, AMANDA
DE JESUS LAURITZEN and A.D., a minor,

Plaintiffs,

v.

MICHAEL DE JESUS, MELISSA
DE JESUS, DEBORAH LAVENDUSKEY
and THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA,

Defendants.

ORDER

11-cv-579-bbc

Defendant Prudential Insurance Company of America has deposited the funds at issue in this case with the clerk of court and has asked for dismissal from the suit. The motion will be GRANTED.

IT IS ORDERED that defendant Prudential is dismissed from this case with prejudice and discharged from any and all liability to plaintiffs Allan De Jesus, Amanda De Jesus Lauritzen and A.D., a minor, and defendants Michael De Jesus, Melissa De Jesus and Deborah Lavenduskey.

FURTHER, IT IS ORDERED that the remaining parties are enjoined permanently from making any further actual or implied claims, demands and causes of action, asserted or unasserted, liquidated or unliquidated, or bringing any action or proceeding in any forum, arising out of or in connection with Prudential relating to Group Life Insurance policy number G-32000 issued by Prudential, through the Office of Servicemembers's Group Life Insurance, which provided Group Life insurance benefits pursuant to the SGLI statute, 38 U.S.C. 1865 et seq. to the United States Department to Veterans Affairs and providing coverage on the life of Michael De Jesus, Sr., and payment of death benefits in the amount of $100,000, plus claim interest in the amount of $165.36 and premium refund of $26.00 due thereunder.

Entered this 30th day of January, 2012.
