

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

RALPH LANG,

Defendant.

ORDER

12-cr-43-wmc

---

Attached for the parties' consideration are draft voir dire questions, jury instructions and a verdict form. The court's voir dire is very short because the parties included most of the standard questions in their written questionnaire, which the court intends to provide to the 60 venire people to fill out when they show up for jury selection on April 8, 2013. See dkt. 103. This leads me to ask: how do counsel anticipate the questionnaire process playing out that morning? At this point, would it be more efficient just to conduct a standard oral voir dire and include the written questions as part of it?

Entered this 22nd day of March, 2013.
