ORDER

14-cv-499-bbc

A telephone status conference was held in this case on June 26, 2015. Counsel advised the court that this case is still settled but the parties will need more time to complete the settlement paperwork. As I told counsel at the conference, rather than wait for this to happen, I will be entering the court's standard order of dismissal. Because the telephone connection was questionable, not all counsel may have heard this. Therefore, I will wait a week to enter the order so that anyone who has any objection to my doing so may file an objection with the court. (A sample of the standard order is attached.)

Entered this 26th day of June, 2015.
