

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

-----
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ERIC R. MEYER,

Defendant.

-----

ORDER

96-cr-100-bbc

On May 7, 2015, defendant Eric R. Meyer filed a pleading titled “Hazel-Atlas motion,” in which he asked the court to investigate what he says was a fraud upon the court that resulted in his conviction in 1999 for sale of powder cocaine. In a letter dated June 25, 2015 I informed defendant that the motion had to be construed as a motion filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 and he is prohibited from filing such a motion unless he obtains certification by the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

Defendant has now filed a motion for reconsideration of his Hazel-Atlas motion, which is an attempt to challenge his prosecution and sentence. The outcome is the same: he cannot file such a motion unless he obtains certification to do so from the court of appeals.

If defendant files any more motions with the court concerning his conviction, they will be placed in a file and deemed denied if they are not acted upon with 120 days.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that defendant Eric R. Meyer's motion for reconsideration of his "Hazel-Atlas motion" is DENIED.

Entered this 31st day of July, 2015.
