

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

TRU-FIRE CORPORATION,

Plaintiff,

v.

TOMORROW'S RESOURCES
UNLIMITED, INC.

Defendant.

ORDER

01-C-619-C

Plaintiff Tru-Fire Corporation has moved to join S&S Machine, Inc. and Gregory E. Summers as parties to this litigation. In support of its motion, plaintiff avers that S&S Machine is the actual manufacturer of the allegedly infringing bowstring releases in this case and that defendant Summers controls the operations of both S&S Machine and defendant T.R.U. Ball.

Plaintiff's motion will be denied. With my decision that defendant's product does not infringe plaintiff's United States Patent No. 5,357,939, there is no reason to expand this lawsuit to include S&S Machine or Summers.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Tru-Fire Corporation's motion to add parties is DENIED as moot.

Entered this 18th day of October, 2002.
