

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

STERLING DANIELS,

Defendant.

ORDER

01-cr-9-bbc

Defendant Sterling Daniels has filed an “Emergency Motion for Interruption of Sentence” to enable him to leave the Federal Correctional Camp at Oxford, Wisconsin, so that he can attend the funeral of his grandfather on January 8, 2011 and be with his family in mourning his grandfather’s death.

It is not clear to me that a court has authority to issue an order for interruption of sentence. If it does, I do not find that this is a situation in which such an order should be issued.

Although I do not intend to grant defendant’s motion, I would have no objection if the Bureau of Prisons were to decide to grant him a short furlough for the purpose of visiting his family at this time.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that defendant Sterling Daniels's emergency motion for interruption of his sentence is DENIED.

Entered this 5th day of January, 2011.
