

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

JOSHUA A. ANEY,

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

02-C-131-C

CAPT. GILBERG, in his official and individual capacities; C/O D. ESSER, in his official and individual capacities;
SGT. HOTTENSTEIN, in his official and individual capacities; THOMAS BROWN,
SHAWN GALLINGER, JAMES BOISON,
CHAD WINGER and TIMOTHY NORDENGREN,

Defendants.

Plaintiff Joshua Aney is proceeding in this civil action pro se and in forma pauperis. As the case has progressed, it has become clear that plaintiff requires appointed counsel to resolve the otherwise unavoidable tension between defendants' legitimate confidentiality and security concerns and plaintiff's entitlement to discover certain information in connection with his claim that he was subjected to excessive force during a cell extraction.

Paul Norman and Sarah Zylstra, members of the Wisconsin Bar, have agreed jointly to represent plaintiff, with the understanding that they will serve with no guarantee of compensation for their services. It is this court's intention that the appointment of Ms. Zylstra and Mr. Norman to represent plaintiff extend to proceedings in this court only.¹

Plaintiff should be aware that because I am appointing counsel to represent him, he may not communicate directly with the court about matters pertaining to his case. He must work directly with his lawyers and permit them to exercise their professional judgment to determine which matters are appropriate to bring to the court's attention and in what form.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that Paul Norman and Sarah Zylstra are appointed to represent plaintiff Joshua A. Aney in this case.

Entered this 23rd day of September, 2002.

BY THE COURT:

BARBARA B. CRABB
District Judge

¹"Proceedings in this court" include all matters leading up to a final judgment on the merits, the filing of a Notice of Appeal, if appropriate, and ensuring that all steps are taken to transfer the record to the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.
