MEMORANDUM

03-C-0127-C

On April 10, 2003, I granted plaintiff leave to proceed in forma pauperis in this action on claims that defendants are violating his rights under state law and the United States Constitution by enforcing a policy forbidding inmates in segregation from having a Tallith, yarmulke and Siddurim and by enforcing a policy forbidding inmates from having all but first-class mail. In his complaint, plaintiff referred to the defendant Secretary of the Department of Corrections as Frank J. Matthew. Defendant's correct name is Matthew J. Frank. Accordingly, the parties should amend the caption of all future filings in this case to match the caption of this order in which defendant Frank's name is in proper sequence.

Entered this 2nd day of May, 2003.
