JOEL FLAKES,

Plaintiff,

v.

MATTHEW J. FRANK,
CORRECTIONS CORPORATION
OF AMERICA, JANE SONDALE
and DANIEL BENIK,

Defendants.

ORDER

04-C-189-C

In an order entered on June 17, 2004, I granted plaintiff's motion for reconsideration of this court's decision to deny him leave to proceed on his claims against defendant Matthew Frank under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § § 12101-12213. In addition, I granted his motion for appointment of counsel and stayed all proceedings until a lawyer could be found who would accept appointment. The court has not yet found a lawyer willing to take plaintiff's case, but it has not yet exhausted all possibilities.

Now plaintiff has filed another document titled "Motion for Reconsideration," which is dated June 29, 2004. In this motion, plaintiff asks that the stay be lifted so that he can challenge certain conduct of defendants occurring both before and after he filed his lawsuit. That motion will be denied. Once counsel is appointed, plaintiff will be free to discuss with him or her his various concerns about defendants' conduct. If counsel believes that the conduct is related to the claims on which plaintiff has been allowed to proceed, he or she may raise the matters in the context of a motion for preliminary injunction, assuming such a motion is appropriate.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for an order lifting the stay presently in effect in this case is DENIED.

Entered this 12th day of July, 2004.

BY THE COURT:

BARBARA B. CRABB
District Judge
