

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOHN D. KEMPF,

Defendant.

ORDER

04-CR-031-S

On June 27, 2007, this court held an initial appearance on the government's petition to revoke defendant's supervised release. Defendant John Kempf was present with his attorney, Brian Mullins. The government was represented by Assistant United States Attorney David Reinhard and Chief U.S. Probation Officer Kent Hanson.

Kempf waived a probable cause hearing, so I held him to answer to the district judge. That hearing has been set for July 6, 2007 at 1:15 p.m. Kempf asked to be heard on release pending that hearing; after hearing the proffers and arguments from all concerned, I found that Kempf had not shown by clear and convincing evidence that he was not a danger to the community pending the revocation hearing. There is probable cause to believe that Kempf engaged in two criminal acts within two days, both within two months of beginning supervised release. From this, it is unclear whether Kempf would continue to comply with conditions pending the hearing. Accordingly, Kempf shall be detained pending further proceedings in this case.

Entered this 27th day of June, 2007.
