

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

JEANNE JOHNSON,

Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

05-C-0129-C

JO ANNE B. BARNHART,
Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

On August 21, 2006, while this case was pending before the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, I entered a memorandum indicating that I was inclined to grant the parties' joint motion for relief from judgment under Rule 60(b). The court of appeals has remanded the case. Now, therefore, pursuant to the parties' stipulation, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The parties' joint motion for relief from judgment under Rule 60(b) is GRANTED.
2. The court's judgment of February 10, 2006 is VACATED.
3. The decision of the Commissioner finding that plaintiff is not disabled is REVERSED and this case is REMANDED to the Social Security Administration for further administrative proceedings pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).
4. Upon remand, the administrative law judge will update the record, afford the claimant an opportunity for a new hearing and issue a new decision. The administrative law judge will obtain testimony from a vocational expert who will be asked to identify the number and types of jobs that an individual with the claimant's age, educational background, work history and residual functional capacity can perform. If appropriate, the administrative law judge will seek the advice of a medical expert.

5. The clerk of court is directed to enter judgment consistent with this order.

Entered this 13th day of November, 2006.
