

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

WILLIE C. SIMPSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

JANEL NICKEL, TIMOTHY DOUMA,
PHILIP KINGSTON, WILLIAM
NOLAND, MATTHEW J. FRANK,

Defendants.

ORDER

05-C-232-C

This case was dismissed on November 23, 2005, on the court's own motion for plaintiff's failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. A copy of the order of dismissal was sent to plaintiff on November 25, 2005. Now plaintiff has filed a "Motion for Injunction & Restraining Order," which appears to have crossed in the mail with the dismissal order. Because plaintiff's case is closed, his motion for an injunction or restraining order is moot.

In any event, I note that the subject of plaintiff's recent motion is entirely different from the subject raised in his complaint in this case. If plaintiff believes that prison officials are violating his constitutional rights with respect to the medical care he is receiving, he will have to file a separate lawsuit raising his claims.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for an injunction and restraining order is DENIED as moot.

Entered this 1st day of December, 2005.
