

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

LARRY McGEE,

Defendant.

ORDER

05-cr-136-bbc

Defendant Larry McGee has written the court to request a furlough so that may attend the funeral of his grandson, who died at birth. Although the situation is a sympathetic one, his request will be denied.

Imprisonment carries with it many restrictions, among them the inability to be with one's family for funerals and other important occasions. It is my hope that when defendant completes the last 27 months of his sentence, he will never return to prison but will remain free to give his family the care and attention they need.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that defendant Larry McGee's request for a furlough is DENIED.

Entered this 8th day of June, 2012.
