

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

NEIL T. NOESEN,

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER
06-C-071-S

MEDICAL STAFFING NETWORK, INC.,
WAL-MART STORES, INC. and
STATE OF WISCONSIN,

Defendants.

Defendant Medical Staffing Network, Inc. moves for a telephonic status conference to discuss scheduling of discovery, dispositive motions and trial in this matter. Defendant argues that the Court's May 5, 2006 deadline for dispositive motions does not provide sufficient time for discovery in this case. Defendant also argues that the deadline for dispositive motions is after the reply brief is due on its motion to dismiss.

The above entitled action was commenced by a pro se plaintiff. It alleges quite simply in paragraph nine that he was terminated as a pharmacist because he sought to avoid the distribution of contraceptive articles. He also alleges in paragraph 17 that the defendants violated his First Amendment rights.

The Court cannot imagine that these simple allegations require extensive discovery. Cases of this nature brought by a pro se plaintiff are no more difficult than defendant's retained counsel make them. Accordingly, defendant Medical Staffing Network Inc.'s motion for a telephonic status conference will be denied. This Court's April 5, 2006 scheduling order will be affirmed.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that the motion of defendant Medical Staffing Network, Inc. for a telephonic status conference is DENIED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Court's April 5, 2006 scheduling order is AFFIRMED.

Entered this 19th day of April, 2006.
