

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

ROGER O'NEAL,

Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

06-C-0149-C

BYRAN BARTOW, Director,
Wisconsin Resource Center,

Defendant.

---

Roger O'Neal has sent a letter in which he asks various questions about his case, which is currently pending in the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. As I indicated in a previous order, the court of appeals, not this court, has jurisdiction over petitioner's case. This court has transferred the record to the court of appeals and is no longer involved in any aspect of petitioner's appeal. Petitioner should direct his questions about his appeal to the court of appeals, not this court.

To assist petitioner, I have enclosed a copy of the court of appeals' docket. According to the docket, the court is in the process of deciding whether to allow petitioner to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal and whether to issue a certificate of appealability to petitioner. However, it appears that petitioner still needs to supply the court of appeals with a docketing statement. If he has not already done so, petitioner should provide the court of appeals with a docketing statement as soon as possible.

Entered this 24th day of July, 2006.
