

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

HEATHER BARRY,

Defendant.

---

ORDER OF DETENTION
PENDING TRIAL

06-CR-204-C

At the December 28, 2006 arraignment the government moved pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(f) to detain defendant Heather Barry pending her trial in this social security fraud case. Because defendant currently is in state custody, she is not contesting detention at this time but she has reserved her right to a de novo substantive hearing upon request. Therefore, based on the currently uncontested information in the pretrial services report, I find that defendant is a flight risk.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshals Service for confinement at a proximate jail separate from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with her attorney. On order of this court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the jail shall deliver the defendant to the Marshals Service for the purpose of an appearance in this case.

Dated: December 28, 2006
