

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

ROGER KUBSCH,

Petitioner,

v.

DOUG BELLILE,

Respondent.

MEMORANDUM

07-C-419-C

This is the second time petitioner has filed what appears to be a nearly identical copy of his complaint in this closed case. When petitioner filed the first copy after his case was closed, I issued a memorandum advising petitioner that because his recent submission did not raise any new claims or request any relief that would require further action from the court, I was placing the document in the file and would give it no further consideration. Nevertheless, for inexplicable reasons, petitioner is persisting in filing copies of his complaint. Rather than waste judicial resources docketing petitioner's duplicative filings and issuing new memoranda, I am directing the clerk to forward to chambers any new document petitioner might submit. If I determine that the document is not substantially different from the documents petitioner is now filing with the court, it will be placed in the file and no consideration will be given to it.

Entered this 18th day of October, 2007.
