

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ELASHA YOUNG,

Defendant.

ORDER OF DETENTION
PENDING TRIAL

07-CR-131-C-01

At the October 2, 2007 arraignment the government moved pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(f) to detain defendant Elasha Young pending her trial in this bank fraud prosecution. Defendant is not contesting detention at this time but has reserved her right to a substantive de novo hearing upon request. Based on this and based on the facts set forth in the pretrial service report, I find that defendant presents a substantial risk of nonappearance.

It is ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshals Service for confinement at a proximate jail. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his attorney. On order of this court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the jail shall deliver the defendant to the Marshals Service for the purpose of an appearance in this case.

Dated: October 2, 2007
