IMPRISONMENT

As to count one of the indictment, it is adjudged that defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for imprisonment for a term of 10 months. I recommend that defendant be placed in a residential re-entry center prior to his release, with work release privileges.

Defendant is neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community. Accordingly, execution of the sentence of imprisonment is stayed until May 15, 2008, between the hours of noon and 2:00 p.m., when defendant is to report to an institution to be designated by further court order. The present release conditions are continued until May 15, 2008.

If defendant appeals his conviction and sentence, execution of the sentence of imprisonment is stayed until 10 days after the court of appeals issues its mandate and the present release conditions are continued until defendant has reported to the designated institution.

RETURN

I have executed this judgment as follows:

Defendant delivered on _____ to _____ at _____, with a certified copy of this judgment.

By _____ UNITED STATES MARSHAL
Deputy Marshal

SUPERVISED RELEASE

The term of confinement is to be followed by a two-year term of supervised release with standard conditions.

Defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

If defendant has been convicted of a felony, defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon while on supervised release.

Defendant shall cooperate with the collection of DNA by the U.S. Justice Department and/or the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office as required by Public Law 108-405.

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Financial Penalties sheet of this judgment.

Defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth on the next page).

In light of the nature of the offense, as well as defendant's history and characteristics, the following special conditions of supervised release are appropriate. Defendant is to:

- 1) Register with local law enforcement agencies and the state attorney general as directed by the supervising U.S. probation officer;
- 2) Submit his person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search conducted by a U.S. probation officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner whenever the probation officer has reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be a ground for revocation; defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises he is occupying may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition;
- 3) Provide the supervising U.S. probation officer any and all requested financial information; and
- 4) Refrain from incurring new credit charges and opening additional lines of credit without the prior approval of the supervising U.S. probation officer.

Although the instant offense is not drug related, mandatory drug testing as set forth by 18 U.S.C. §§ 3563(a) and 3583(d) is not waived because defendant has admitted that he abused cocaine in the past. Defendant shall submit to no more than six random urinalysis tests during the term of supervision. If any of the test results indicate drug use, I will determine what further action to take, if any.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) Defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) Defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) Defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) Defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) Defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) Defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) Defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) Defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) Defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) Defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
- 11) Defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) Defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
- 13) As directed by the probation officer, defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

It is adjudged that defendant is to pay a $100 criminal assessment penalty to the Clerk of Court for the Western District of Wisconsin.

It is adjudged that defendant is to pay restitution in the amount of $10,000 to the Clerk of Court for the Western District of Wisconsin for disbursement as follows:

Defendant's restitution obligation is joint and several with his co-defendant, Darwin Moore. No interest is to accrue on the unpaid portion of the restitution.

Defendant is to make restitution payments while he is in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and during the term of his supervised release. Over the period of incarceration, defendant shall make payments of either quarterly installments of a minimum of $25 if he is working in a non-UNICOR position or a minimum of half his monthly earnings if he is working for UNICOR.

Defendant does not have the economic resources to pay the full amount of restitution in the foreseeable future under any reasonable schedule of payments. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(f)(3)(B), he is to make nominal payments of a minimum of $150 each month beginning within 30 days of his release from custody.

Defendant has neither the means nor earning potential to pay a fine under advisory § 5E1.2(d)(4) without impairing his ability to pay restitution.

The total fine and other monetary penalties shall be due in full immediately unless otherwise stated elsewhere.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if the judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of court, unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States Attorney.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

In the event of a civil settlement between victim and defendant, defendant must provide evidence of such payments or settlement to the Court, U.S. Probation office, and U.S. Attorney's office so that defendant's account can be credited.
