Petitioner James Edward Grant, a prisoner at the Dodge Correctional Institution in Waupun, Wisconsin, filed a notice of appeal in each of the above-captioned cases. On February 10, 2009, this court denied his request for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal in each case because three strikes have been recorded against him under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Now petitioner has filed a letter in which he asks “for an extension for appeal notice 1 document(s) sent to me recently.” It is difficult to understand what petitioner requests, but I understand him to be asking for an extension of the time the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit gave him in its February 6, 2009 order to file a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 24. However, such a motion must be filed with the court of appeals, which has jurisdiction over his case. Therefore, I have not given any consideration to the motion.

Entered this 3rd day of March, 2009.
