

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

DEREK WILLIAMS,

Plaintiff,

v.

WILLIAM POLLARD and
LT. THOMAS CAMPBELL,

Defendants.

---

ORDER

09-cv-485-bbc

Plaintiff Derek Williams was allowed to proceed on his claims that defendants William Pollard and Lt. Campbell violated his procedural due process rights by either holding or upholding an unfair disciplinary hearing, that Pollard violated his equal protection rights by upholding a punishment against him that was harsher than the punishment given to the white inmate involved in the incident and that defendants violated his Eighth Amendment rights by the conditions in segregation. On July 21, 2010, the court granted plaintiff an extension until August 20, 2010 to file his brief in opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment and noted that absent good cause being shown no further extensions would be granted. Now before the court is plaintiff's motion for a 60-day extension of time, dkt. 34.

In his motion, plaintiff states that he has not received this court's decision on his motion to compel. That decision was entered on August 16, 2010 and requires defendant to produce a narrow set of information by August 30, 2010. Because plaintiff might support his response to defendants' motion with this information—if any helpful information exists—I will grant him an extension of time until September 15, 2010 to file his brief in opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment. Plaintiff shall not receive any further extensions.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for an extension of time is PARTIALLY GRANTED until September 15, 2010. Defendants may file their reply not later than September 27, 2010.

Entered this 23rd day of August, 2010.

BY THE COURT:

/s/

STEPHEN L. CROCKER
Magistrate Judge