

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JAMES E. BOE,

Defendant.

ORDER

09-cr-60-bbc

Defendant James E. Boe has filed a motion for interruption of sentence to allow him to visit his terminally-ill father in Davenport, Iowa. As much as I sympathize with defendant's wish to visit his father at this time, it is not this court's policy to order an interruption of sentence. In fact, I know of no statutory authorization for such an order. Rather, it is within the discretion of the Bureau of Prisons to determine whether a furlough is appropriate. In this case, the Bureau, in the form of the warden at FCI Oxford, has considered defendant's request and determined that a furlough is not appropriate.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that defendant James E. Boe's motion for an interruption of sentence is DENIED.

Entered this 14th day of February, 2014.
