

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

CHARLES HILL,

Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

DR. HUIBREGTSE, LAURIE DOEHLING
and JANE DOES 1-6.

10-cv-806-wmc

Defendants.

Plaintiff Charles Hill is proceeding in this case on his claims that defendants Dr. Huibregtse, Laurie Doehling and Jane Does 1-6 violated his Eighth Amendment rights by acting with deliberate indifference to his chronic pain. Now, plaintiff has filed a motion for relief in which he asks the court to order defendants to treat and diagnose plaintiff's chronic pain, reduction in vision and skin condition. I will construe plaintiff's submission as a motion for preliminary injunction brought under Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(a).

This court cannot consider this motion on its merits at this time because plaintiff's submission does not comply with this court's procedures for obtaining a preliminary injunction. In particular, plaintiff has not submitted admissible evidence to support his requests for injunctive relief and he has not proposed facts supported by such evidence. Therefore, the court is denying his motion without prejudice because he has failed to follow this court's procedures for obtaining injunctive relief. Those procedures are set out in a document titled Procedure To Be Followed On Motions For Injunctive Relief, a copy of which is included with this order. Plaintiff should pay particular attention to those parts of the procedure that require him to submit proposed findings of fact in support of his motion and point to admissible evidence in the record to support each factual proposition. Whenever he is ready, plaintiff may refile his motion in accordance with the attached procedures.

ORDER

Plaintiff Charles Hill's constructive motion for preliminary injunctive relief, dkt. 17, is DENIED without prejudice on procedural grounds.

Entered this 23rd day of April, 2012.

BY THE COURT:

STEPHEN L. CROCKER
Magistrate Judge

PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED ON MOTIONS FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

NOTE WELL: It is the duty of the parties to present to the court, in the manner required by this procedure, all facts and law necessary to the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of this matter. The court is not obliged to search the record for facts or to research the law when deciding a motion for injunctive relief.

I. NOTICE

- A. It is the movant's obligation to provide actual and immediate notice to the opposing party of the filing of the motion and of the date set for a hearing, if any.
- B. The movant must serve the opposing party promptly with copies of all materials filed.
- C. Failure to comply with provisions A and B may result in denial of the motion for this reasons alone.

II. MOVANT'S OBLIGATIONS

- A. It is the movant's obligation to establish the factual basis for a grant of relief.
 - 1. In establishing the factual basis necessary for a grant of the motion, the movant must file and serve:
 - (a) A stipulation of those facts to which the parties agree; or
 - (b) A statement of record facts proposed by the movant; or
 - (c) A statement of those facts movant intends to prove at an evidentiary hearing; or
 - (d) Any combination of (a), (b) and (c).
 - 2. Whether the movant elects a stipulation or a statement of proposed facts, it is the movant's obligation to present a precisely tailored set of factual propositions that movant considers necessary to a decision in the movant's favor.¹

- (a) The movant must set forth each factual proposition in its own separately numbered paragraph.
 - (b) In each numbered paragraph the movant shall set cite with precision to the source of that proposition, such as pleadings,² affidavits,³ exhibits, deposition transcripts, or a detailed proffer of testimony that will be presented at an evidentiary hearing.
- B. The movant must file and serve all materials specified in II. A with the movant's supporting brief.
- D. If, the court concludes that the movant's submissions do not comply substantially with these procedures, then the court, at its sole discretion, may deny summarily the motion for injunctive relief, cancel any hearing on the motion, or postpone the hearing.

III. RESPONDENT'S OBLIGATIONS

- A. When a motion and supporting materials and brief have been filed and served in compliance with Section II, above, the opposing respondent(s) shall file and serve the following:
- 1. Any affidavits or other documentary evidence that the respondent chooses to file and serve in opposition to the motion.
 - 2. A response to the movant's statement of proposed findings of fact, with the respondent's paragraph numbers corresponding to the movant's paragraph numbers.
 - (a) With respect to each numbered paragraph of the movant's proposed findings of fact, each respondent shall state clearly whether the proposed finding is not disputed, disputed, or disputed in part. If disputed in part, then the response shall identify precisely which part is disputed.

² The pleadings, however, are not evidence. Therefore, the movant may use the pleadings as a source of facts only if all parties to the hearing stipulate to these facts on the record.

³ Affidavits must be made on personal knowledge setting forth facts that would be admissible in evidence, including any facts necessary to establish admissibility.

- (b) For each paragraph disputed in whole or in part, the response shall cite with precision to the evidentiary matter in the record or to the testimony to be presented at the hearing that respondent contends will refute this factual proposition.

- B. The response, in the form required by III A., above, shall be filed and served together with a brief in opposition to the motion for injunctive relief no later than the date set by the court in a separately issued briefing schedule.
- C. There shall be no reply by the movant.

IV. HEARING

If the court determines that a hearing is necessary to take evidence and hear arguments it shall notify the parties promptly. It is each party's responsibility to ensure the attendance of its witnesses at any hearing.
