

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

CORNELIUS MADDUX,

Plaintiff,

v.

PETER ERICKSEN, MARK S. STUTLEEN,
W. BRUNS, D. MOSHER, MALEAH CUMMINGS and
M. ARMANTAE,¹

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM

10-cv-831-wmc

Pursuant to an informal service agreement between the Wisconsin Department of Justice and this court, the Department has agreed to accept electronic service of documents on behalf of the defendants it represents. The Wisconsin Department of Justice has indicated that it will represent defendants Peter Ericksen, Mark S. Stutleen, Wendy Bruns, Dennis Mosher and Mahleah Cummings in this case. Therefore, for the remainder of this lawsuit, plaintiff does not have to send a paper copy of each document he files with the court to the Department. All he has to do is submit the document to the court, and the Department will access the document through the court's electronic filing system.

The Department has indicated that does it does not accept service for Maria Amarante. Once she has been served, you will have to send Maria Aramante, or her attorney, a paper copy of each document.

Discovery requests or responses are an exception to the electronic service rule. Usually, those documents should be sent directly to counsel for the opposing party and do not have to be sent to the court. Discovery procedures will be explained more fully at the preliminary pretrial conference.

Entered this 9th day of April, 2012.

BY THE COURT:

/s/

STEPHEN L. CROCKER
Magistrate Judge

¹I have amended the caption to replace W. Bruns with the name Wendy Bruns, D. Mosher with the name Dennis Mosher and M. Armantae with the name Maria Aramante as identified in the Acceptance of Service.