ORDER

11-cv-693-bbc

This civil case is before the court for a determination of attorney fees and costs. Defendants Dean C. Henning and Marie E. Henning filed a notice of removal of this case, combining a state foreclosure action and a state replevin action originally filed separately in state court. Defendants removed the cases on the asserted ground of diversity, but I remanded the cases to state court because defendants failed to show that there was complete diversity of the parties. In the remand order, I found that defendant had no objectively reasonable ground for removing the case. I granted plaintiff's request for reimbursement of costs and attorney fees under 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c) and ordered plaintiff Parker Community Credit Union to file an itemization of the fees incurred in moving for remand. Plaintiff has now filed such an itemization, seeking reimbursement in the amount of $2,031.22 ($1,864.50 in attorney fees and $166.72 in costs). Although defendants were invited to object to the amount claimed by plaintiff, they have not done so. I conclude that this modest request is reasonable.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Parker Community Credit Union is awarded costs and fees in the amount of $2,031.22 against defendants Dean C. Henning and Marie E. Henning.

Entered this 24th day of August, 2012.
