

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

TIRAN JENKINS,

ORDER

v.

11-cv-747-wmc
Appeal No. 13-3737

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

On September 5, 2013, this court denied Tiran Jenkins's motion for relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 from his conviction and sentence. In that same order, the court denied a certificate of appealability for purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c). Jenkins has filed a notice of appeal and he requests leave to proceed on that appeal without prepayment of the appellate docketing fee ($505.00). Because it does not appear that Jenkins has filed his appeal in bad faith or that pauper status is otherwise precluded by Fed. R. App. P. 24(a), the court will grant his motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

After considering Jenkins's inmate trust fund account statement, the court finds that he has adequate financial resources to make an initial partial payment followed by monthly installments until he has paid the full appellate filing fee. Accordingly, the court will assess $15.60 as an initial partial payment of the $505.00 appellate docketing fee for each appeal.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Having certified that the appeal is not taken in bad faith, Fed. R. App. P. 24(a), the request by Tiran Jenkins for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal (Dkt. # 35) is GRANTED.
2. For his appeal to proceed, Jenkins shall make an initial partial payment of $15.60 towards the $505.00 appellate docketing fee in each of the above-referenced cases. Jenkins shall submit a check or money order in that amount, payable to the “Clerk of Court,” no later than April 11, 2014. The clerk’s office will ensure that the court’s financial records reflect Jenkins’s obligation to pay the $15.60 initial partial payment and the remainder of the $505.00 fee.

3. It is Jenkins’s responsibility to show a copy of this order to prison officials to ensure that they are aware they should send his initial partial appeal payment to this court. If Jenkins does not comply as directed or present proof that he is unable to do so by April 11, 2014, then the clerk of court will advise the court of appeals of his noncompliance. Jenkins is advised that his failure to comply may result in the dismissal of his appeal.

Entered this 26th day of March, 2014.
