

The Changing Dynamic of Intimate Partner Violence:
Supporting and Providing Resources to Those at Risk
September 26, 2023 – 11 a.m. to Noon (CST)

Panelists:

Honorable Rosemary Collins (ret.), Judge, 17th Circuit of Illinois
Monica A. Stump, Clerk of Court, Southern District of Illinois
Amanda Mayer, Judicare Legal Aid, Deputy Director
Shelby Rees, Judicare Legal Aid, Staff Attorney

Opening Remarks: Chief Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer, U.S. District Court for Northern District of Illinois

Closing Remarks: Magistrate Judge Nancy Joseph, U.S. District Court for Eastern District of Wisconsin

Agenda:

11:00-11:05 a.m. - Welcoming Remarks

Chief Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer, U.S. District Court for Northern District of Illinois

11:05-11:15 a.m. – Personal Reflections on Resources Available as a Child

Personal perspective as a child of intimate partner violence and the absence of resources. Reflections on what would have been helpful, especially knowing what is currently available.

Monica A. Stump

11:15-11:35 a.m. – Tips and Best Practices to Support Survivors:

From the Bench

A retired domestic relations judge provides insights from the bench, offers tips and best practices in supporting survivors in matters before the court and beyond.

Honorable Rosemary Collins (ret.)

11:35-11:55 a.m. – Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) and Tribal Communities

Deputy Director and Staff Attorney for Judicare Legal Aid provide information on violence against native partners and provide cultural resources and programs for indigenous survivors.

Amanda R.R. Mayer and Shelby Rees

11:55-12:00 p.m. – Q&A and Final Thoughts

Questions from the audience, and/or final thoughts from panelists.

All panelists

12:00 p.m. – Closing Remarks

Magistrate Judge Nancy Joseph, U.S. District Court for Eastern District of Wisconsin